

Evansville 4-H News
1935-1939
Compiled by Ruth Ann Montgomery
RMontgomery@litewire.net

degrees below zero.
The 4-H club cook books recently published by the Antes Press and issued by the county organization were placed on sale yesterday at the Grange store. They are being sold at 50 cents.

January 10, 1935, p. 5, col. 1, Evansville Review, Evansville, Wisconsin

the sev-
will t to ints
ness.
spe-
re-ster-
This
luet,
be lose
will tion
Star
will

LOCAL 4-H CLUB TO MEET FRIDAY

Officers for the ensuing year will be elected and announcement will be made of the 1935 club leaders at the regular meeting of the Evansville 4-H club to be held at 7:45 p.m. Friday in the city hall auditorium.

A special educational program on gardening has been planned for the meeting and all members, parents, and leaders are urged to attend. The new Rock county 4-H cook books will be on sale.

Wisconsin

January 17, 1935, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 7, Evansville,

ROBINSON BROTHERS ON 4-H CLUB PROGRAM

Will Discuss Baby Beef Project
At Valentine Party Feb. 1st
In Spersrud Home

Harold and Philip Robinson, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Robinson and prominent members of the Evansville 4-H club, will discuss the baby beef project at the regular meeting of the Magnolia 4-H club to be held Friday evening, Feb. 1, in the home of Evelyn Spersrud, four miles southeast of the city.

The business session, which will include the installation of the newly elected officers and the election of a new director, will be followed by a Valentine's party for which each member is requested to bring a valentine for exchange.

Novelty games and stunts will feature the evening's entertainment which will close with the serving of refreshments. All club members are requested to attend this meeting.

LI

1

Evansville
hel
Jan
wee men
high wiv
a 7
for mee
day

LO

Rev
S

T
the gain spea
WII

EVANSVILLE 4-H CLUB REELECTS DIRECTOR

Mrs. Hugh Robinson Will Serve Sixth Consecutive Year as Head of Local Group

Mrs. Hugh Robinson was reelected director for the sixth consecutive year at the regular meeting of the Evansville 4-H club held here Friday night in the city hall auditorium. The assistant directors are Mrs. Potter Porter and Michael Moore. Due to the icy roads the attendance at the meeting was too small for an election of officers. They will be chosen at the next meeting.

Mrs. Lee Milbrandt was chosen as dramatic coach and Miss Mae Jorgensen.

(Continued on last page)

EVANSVILLE 4-H CLUB REELECTS DIRECTOR

(Continued from page 1)

sen was given charge of the music for the ensuing year. The club project leaders were named as follows:

Wade Woodworth, dairy calf; Peter Templeton, colt; Chester Jorgensen, pig; Hugh Robinson, baby beef; Philip Jorgensen, potato; Gillies Spooner, corn; Mrs. Beulah Thomas, gardening; Miss Eleanor Reese, poultry; Norman Odegard, handicraft; Mrs. Barbara Allen, canning; Mrs. Harold Klusmeyer and Miss Alice Odegard, baking; and Mrs. Bert Richards, home service.

The clothing project for the coming year will be led by the Misses Ruth Allen, Wilva Woodworth, and Elizabeth Spooner, and Mesdames Henry Porter and Harry Spooner. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Spooner will have charge of the record books.

1 & 8, Evansville Review, Evansville, Wisconsin

January 24, 1935, pp

At the 4-H club meeting held Friday night in the City hall, the leaders and director were announced as follows: those from this locality were, Director, Mrs. Hugh Robinson, who has been director several years, assistant, Mrs. Potter Porter, colt, Peter Templeton, baby beef, Hugh Robinson, garden, Mrs. Beulah Thomas, canning, Mrs. Barbara Allen, clothing, Miss Ruth Allen, and Mrs. Henry Porter, and several from other localities. The Evansville 4-H club was a 100 per cent club in 1934.

January 24, 1935, p. 7, col. 5, Evansville Review,

Evansville, Wisconsin

4-H CLUB TO HOLD BOOSTER MEETING

The Evansville 4-H club will hold its annual booster meeting in the city hall here at 8 p.m. Friday at which time an entertainin program will be presented by pupils of the rural schools in Union township.

LEI

Mid
V

T

March 14, 1935, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 4, Evansville, Wisconsin

EVANSVILLE 4-H CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Entertaining Program Presented
Here Friday Nite by Union
Township Schools

Harold Robinson was elected president to succeed Ruth Allen at a booster meeting of the Evansville 4-H club held here Friday night in the city hall. The other officers were named as follows:

Alvin Golz, vice president; Marjorie Thomas, secretary; Howard Brunzell, treasurer; and Mary Franklin, reporter. Mrs. Hugh Robinson is continuing as club director.

The program Friday night was presented by the rural schools of Union township. Under the direction of Mrs. Ruby Templeton, teacher, the Brown school offered a dialogue by vocal solo.

(Continued on last page)

Several musical numbers by John and Kenneth Stanton, Vergine Flood, and Mary Gilbertson were the contributions of the Union School of which Mrs. Chester DeRemer is teacher. The Tupper school was represented by the school chorus and a dialogue given under the direction of Miss Hazel Murphy.

EVANSVILLE 4-H CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

(Continued on last page)

Emily and Beatrice Richards and Elmer Janes and a piano duet by the Richards sisters. Two readings by Ethelyn Green and a recitation by Ruth Christman comprised the entertainment arranged by the Franklin school of which Miss Ruth Franklin is teacher.

The Pleasant Prairie school taught by Miss Ruth Maas, presented a dialogue with Dorothy Thompson, Marion Brunzell, Charlotte Brunzell, and Mildred Allen as the participants. Mrs. Carroll Bly of the Tullar school presented her rhythm band in a group of selections and Kenneth Wall in a vocal solo.

T
wed
of I mer
mec
gue
Mrs
and Elai
M
hon
emp

PN

ans eter
Jor
Dev
ior
D...

Br
an
I
ily,
bir
He
hez
to eas

the March 21, 1935, pp 1 & 8, Evansville Review, Evansville, Wisconsin

MAE JORGENSEN QUEEN OF LOCAL 4-H CLUB

Chosen Here Friday Evening to Represent Evansville at Janesville Centennial

Miss Mae Jorgensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jorgensen, was chosen queen at the regular meeting of the Evansville 4-H club held Friday night in the city hall auditorium. She will represent the local club at the centennial celebration to be held at Janesville in July when a Rock county queen will be chosen.

At its meeting Friday night the club voted to send flowers to Margorie Thomas and Ethelyn Green who are confined to their homes with scarlet fever. Arthur Templeton was elected captain of the club's kittenball team and Ruth Allen, captain of the volleyball squad.

(Continued on last page)

MAE JORGENSEN QUEEN OF LOCAL 4-H CLUB

(Continued from page 1)

Music at the meeting was furnished by Arthur Templeton and Howard Norby who entertained with guitar and mouthorgan selections. The games were in charge of Marvin Devlin and Kenneth Norby. Alvin Golz, vice president, presided with Arthur Templeton as acting secretary.

ville Review, p. 1 & 8, Evansville, Wisconsin

May 23, 1935, Evans-

er
aus
ade

Rock County 4-H Band To Appear Here Sunday

In
nsv
olla
n V nd
ing
AY
T
ead
aile
lle

MILDRED FRENG BRIDE OF OWEN R. SLAUSON

Married in Lutheran Church at Osseo Sunday Afternoon; To Reside in Madison

Wh
s, e cali
ek'
y n ho
opp
zing

Miss Mildred Freng, Madison teacher and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Freng, Osseo, became the bride of Owen R. Slauson, Madison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer G. Slauson, this city, at a ceremony performed at 3 p.m. Sunday in the Lutheran church at Osseo by the Rev. O. C. Aune, pastor.

IR

They were attended by Miss Alice Lume, maid of honor, and Mrs. Issac Myrland, Mt. Horeb, formerly Miss Claudine Hyne, this city, who acted as bridesmaid. Nels Freng brother

The Rock county 4-H band comprised of 35 musicians four of whom are from Evansville will present a diversified concert of overtures and popular selections on the lakefront platform in the city park here at 3 p.m. next Sunday.

The group, which played last Sunday in Riverside park, Janesville, is slated to appear on Friday of next week at the Wisconsin State fair in West Allis. Those from Evansville playing in the band are Jacob Larsen, Betty Jackson, Ellen Robinson, and Gwendolyn Bowen.

The musicians are being directed by Martin Goodsell, Janesville, who has charge of the musical organizations here at the Wyler School for Boys. The public is cordially invited to attend the concert next Sunday which will be a wind-up of the midsummer concerts at the park.

children's comfort.

LOCAL 4-H CLUB TO HOLD LAST MEETING

Closes Year's Business Friday Night in Grange Hall Here;
Many Prizes Won

The Evansville 4-H club will hold its last business meeting of the year tomorrow night at 8 p.m. in the city hall. The record books are to be completed and handed in at this meeting.

The three best books in each project will be chosen by the leaders and sent in to the state where they will be placed in competition for state honors.

The checks from the Janesville fair are to be distributed at tomorrow night's session to all members who hand in their finished record books. From the size of the stack of checks that came to the Evansville club, it would seem that the local boys and girls have a right to be proud of their accomplishments.

only not act The accomplishments.

The Evansville 4-H club achievement banquet will be held in October at the Grange hall here. The following committees have been appointed:

Menu—Mrs. Beulah Thomas, Mrs. Lee Milbrandt and Mrs. Grace Brunsell;

Tables and serving—Mrs. Mike Moore, Mrs. Ole Norby, and Mrs. Orville Devlin;

Hall—Mike Moore, William Leeder; Sweeping—Rollin Brunsell, Spencer Porter, Roy Phelps, and Howard Brunsell;

Program—Alvin Golz and Mrs. Hugh Robinson.

situation.

Banquet For October 13

Culminating its year's activities, the Evansville 4-H club under the direction of Mrs. Potter Porter will hold its annual achievement banquet and program at 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 13 in the Waucoma Grange hall here.

The evening's program, which is now being arranged by Madeline Bryan and Gladys Peterson, will include an address of welcome, toasts by club members and leaders, musical selections, an address by a prominent guest speaker, and the awarding of achievement pins by R. T. Glassco, Rock County agricultural agent.

Those in charge of the dinner are Mrs. Lee Milbrandt, Mrs. Grace Brunsell, Mrs. Barbara Allen, and Mrs. Robert Bryan with Mrs. Arthur Templeton, Mrs. Mike Moore, and Mrs. Orville Devlin supervising the serving.

The club now has a total membership of 74 enthusiastic members in addition to 13 leaders and a director. The banquet and program are being given for both the members and their parents.

The Evansville group received a cash prize of $5 for displaying the best exhibit of Holstein cattle at the recent 4-H fair in Janesville. The award was made to the club by the Rock County Holstein association.

been
for E word
The Thurs
acts t
tertai
witne

An
appe:
Their
techr
body
ghos:
glass
disti Pede
on a
the artis
and colo:
war:
who who tain
O
Jon:
trur
solv
top-
the Sol
rus:
hea

F Boc
uni
nov
sen 20,

September 29, 1938, Evansville Review, p. 1, Evansville, Wisconsin

hievment quet Here Tonight

Culminating its year's activities which have kept an enrollment of 73 boys and girls steadily at work, the Evansville 4-H club, under the direction of Mrs. Potter Porter, has completed final preparations for its annual Achievement banquet and program to be held at 7 o'clock tonight in the Grange hall here.

The evening's program, which has been arranged by Miss Madeline Bryan and Miss Gladys Peterson, will open with a toast to the parents by Rollo Brunsell to which a response will be made by Mrs. Bert Richards. Other program numbers have been announced as follows:

Toast to the leaders and directors, Maxine Moore; response, Mrs. Harold Klusmeyer, former director of the Magnolia 4-H club; toast to Miss Madeline Bryan, 4-H club graduate, by Betty Croak; response by Miss Bryan; toast to R. T. Glassco, Rock County Agricultural agent, by Betty Milbrandt with response by Mr. Glassco; assembly singing led by Mrs. Charlene Whipple's 4-H Songsters; musical selections by Howard Norby; and addresses by Miss Thelma Lien, high school home economics instructor here and by Verne Varney, Madison, assistant state club leader.

The achievement pins will be awarded by County Agent Glassco who with Donald Rowald and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Porter will be the guests of honor.

be special

Tryout held in 4 p.m. Thursday 28 when

sembled of unusu

The L of the P W. Ship Antes, P. Flem

"We cordion harmoni any oth ers, yoc mental tras of type, di other 2 stunts sic," sa on the are wa cal nur said.

Impe portuni ite rad Lulu I Georgi Farmer Kelley, Ramble Montar Arkie,

ODD