

coms has
. S.
sid-
Like ther at.
lost
lied om sed he

down, or on time. JAS. W. HARRIS.
Evansville Apr. 17, 1872.

TO CONTRACTORS.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received by the undersigned, until the 1st day of May, 1872, for the building of a School House in School District No. 7, in the town of Union. Said proposals must include the materials as well as the labor. The house is to be finished entire, ready for the seats, add all completed by the first day of August next. Plans and specifications may be seen at the "Review" office, in Evansville.

The Board of said District reserve the right of accepting such proposals as in their opinion, will be the most favorable to the District.

Wm. B. PATTERSON, Director.
Geo. W. HALL, Treasurer.
DANIEL S. WALDO, Clerk.

Union, April 15, 1872.

One year..
Six month
Three mon
One month
To news d
THE 1
By mail, pe
" sh
" th
" on
THE Single copy
In clubs of 1
Ten copies ADDITION
at club rates.
AN EX
ter-up of a clu
Money
Milwaukee P our risk, and letters sent

May 8, 1872, Evansville Review, p. 4, col. 3,

Evansville, Wisconsin

ad.
hat
ye.
ern
ion
ion
nd
ter

D. M. ROWLEY, real estate agent, sold to George S. Stiles, W. B. Patterson's farm on the prairie, 120 acres, for $6,500. This is considered one of the best farms in the town of Union. Mr. Patterson will move to this city. Mr. Rowley can always find buyers for good farms.

April 14, 1883, Evansville Review, p. 3, col. 3, Evansville, Wisconsin for it.

Wm. B. Patterson, by real estate agent Rowley, sold his farm, consisting of 120 acres, last Friday, to Geo. S. Stiles for $6500. This is a choice farm located about two miles west of town. Mr. P. expects to make Evansville his future home.

col. 5, Evansville, Wisconsin

April 17, 1883, Enterprise, p. 1,

Mr. John Budlong has sold his place on Liberty Street to Mr. Wm. B. Patterson, and bought Mr. A. Wilson's place on Main Street.

July 3, 1883, Enterprise, p.1 , col. 4, Evansville, Wisconsin

Mr. S. Hunt has sold the following lots, since laying them out this spring: to Wm. S. Morgan, lot 37, $250; to Mr. Hildreth, lot 36, $200; to Wm. Patterson one lot $200; to Isaac Morgan, one lot, $200; to G. L. Roscoe, one lot, $200; to S. S. Purrington, one lot, $175.

July 10, 1883, Enterprise, p. 1, col. 6, Evansville, Wisconsin

Mr. Wm. B. Patterson has a large barn underway on his place on Liberty Street.
July 17, 1883, Enterprise, p. 1, col. 6, Evansville, Wisconsin

Transfers of Real Estate week ending April 14.

Charles J. Jenkins to C. F. P. and Lucia S. Pullen, -100 acres in w ½ ne ¼ Section 31, Union, $1,450.

William Wilcox to James K. Johnson s1/2 nw ½ section 21, Union, $1,200.

Wm. B. Patterson to James Miles, 10 acres in section 29, Union, $450.

April 15, 1885, Janesville Daily Gazette, p. 4, Janesville, Wisconsin

This office is under obligation to Mr. Wm. B. Patterson for copies of the Gettysburg (D. T.) Herald, which gives most glowing accounts of the prosperity and prospect of an abundant harvest in that country. Mr. P. says he has eighty acres now under the plow, with forty acres planted to corn looking fine.

June 9, 1885, Enterprise, Evansville, Wisconsin

Mr. Wm. B. Patterson and Wm. Tewksbury returned from Gettysburg, D. T., last Wednesday, looking hale and hearty, and we are informed will go back with their families to their new found homes as soon as convenient.

October 31, 1885, The Enterprise, Evansville, Wisconsin

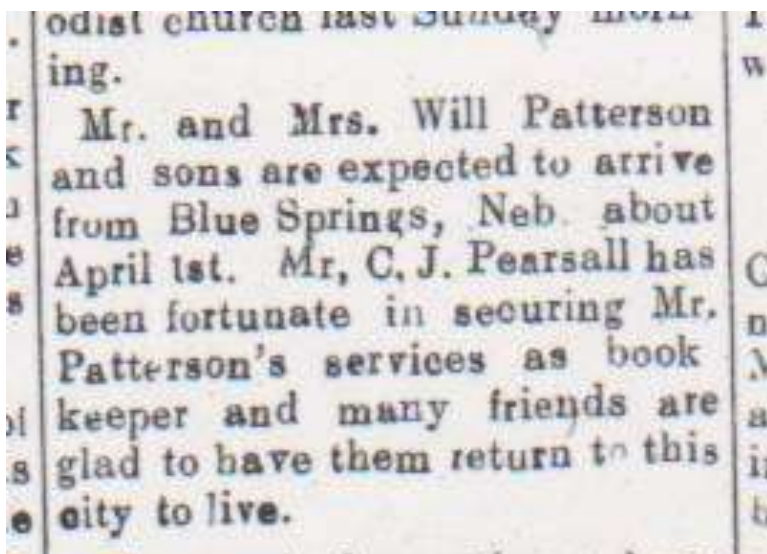

[Note: D. T. is the Dakota Territory]

Wm. B. Patterson, all the way from Gettysburg, S. Dak., arrived in Evansville Saturday morning, for a few weeks visit with old neighbors and friends. Everybody is glad to wee William B.

February 4, 1890, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 2, Evansville, Wisconsin

Mr. Will Patterson left this morning with his family for their new home in Blue Springs, Neb. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson leave behind them in Evansville, many warm friends who regret their departure exceedingly, but who wish them abundant success in their new home.

March 31, 1900, The Badger, p. 5, Col. 2, Evansville, Wisconsin

...odist church last Sunday morn ing.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Patterson and sons are expected to arrive from Blue Springs, Neb. about April 1st. Mr. C. J. Pearsall has been fortunate in securing Mr.
Patterson's services as book keeper and many friends are glad to have them return to this city to live.

March 15, 1902, The Badger, p. 1, col. 4,

Evansville, Wisconsin

MRS. A. L. PATTERSON DIES
AT HOME OF HER SON

Mrs. A. L. Patterson passed away at 2:30 Saturday morning at the home of her son, W. G. Patterson, in this city. She had only been sick for about three weeks, but had been in failing health for sometime before. She had lived in Evansville and the vicinity for many years and was well known to a large number of people.

Her maiden name was Anna C. Palm. Had she lived until the fifteenth of October, she would have been just 68 years of age. She was born and her girlhood home was in the state of Pennsylvania, where she lived until married to A. L. Patterson, when she came west in 1866, locating on a farm in Green county. Here Mr. and Mrs. Patterson lived until fifteen years ago when they moved to Evansville. Mr. Patterson died thirteen years ago. Since that time Mrs. Patterson has made her home with her children, the most of the time in this city. She was a regular attendant at the Methodist Episcopal church and was interested in its work. The funeral was held at the W. G. Patterson home Monday afternoon and was in charge of the Rev. Chas. E. Coon, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. The burial was in the Maple Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Patterson is survived by three sons, Marvin and W. G. Patterson of this city and Dr. Leon Patterson of Green Bay. She also leaves two brothers, Alex Palm and Lemuel Palm, both of Titusville, Pa. Mr. Alex Palm came to Evansville to attend the funeral and is spending a few days here with his sister's children.

September 30, 1915, Evansville Review, Evansville,

Wisconsin

OBITUARY

LAURENCE A. PATTERSON

After suffering from a stroke of paralysis for several weeks, Lawrence A. Patterson died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Barnum, at 8:00 o'clock Monday morning.

Born in the town of Brooklyn, July 21, 1855 he received his education in the schools of Dane County.

At his marriage to Miss Elenora Weaver, of Brooklyn, in 1880 the young couple moved to a farm close to Evansville for a number of years, finally retiring and moving into this city, where they made their home until the death of Mrs. Patterson, eighteen years ago, since which time he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Barnum.

Mr. Patterson was what is known as a "Good Citizen" standing up for every move that was progressive and for the good of his country, state or city, firm in his convictions and fair in his judgments.

The deceased was a member of the Methodist church for many years and the funeral services were held under the supervision of the pastor of that church, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Barnum, yesterday at 2:00 p. m., the interment being in the Brooklyn township cemetery.

He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Charles Barnum, his grandson, Rolland Barnum, and one brother, Will, all of Evansville.

September 24, 1925, Evansville Review, p. 4, col. 3, Evansville, Wisconsin

FORMER LOCAL BOY BUYS HOME PRODUCT IN FOREIGN COUNTRY

W. Daryl Patterson, former local boy who is in command of the S. S. Marinduque in the government coast and geodetic survey, recently purchased a can of peas from the army commissary in Manilla which were packed by the Garden Canning company here. The label on the can read, "Toboggan Brand of Wisconsin Peas packed by the Garden Canning company, Evansville, Wis."

Mr. Patterson's work has taken him to Zamboanga, Jolo, which is the smallest "walled in" city in the world. While on the Sula islands he called upon the Sultan, was most graciously received, and was permitted to take his picture with Mrs. Patterson and the wife of one of the officers.

March 27, 1930, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 5, Evansville,

Wisconsin

LOCAL GIRL AWARDED MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP AT LAWRENCE COLLEGE

Miss June Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Patterson, 306 South First street, who completed a three-year course in music at Lawrence college, Appleton, last year, has been awarded the Mu Phi Epsilon music scholarship.

The prize was given at the seventy-third commencement exercises held there Monday by the Pi chapter of the Mu Phi Epsilon sorority of which Miss Patterson is a member.

Miss Patterson studied public school music at Lawrence and expects to return this fall to obtain the degree of Bachelor of Music. She was graduated from the Evansville high school with the class of 1926 and has a wide circle of friends here who extend to her their congratulations for her remarkable achievement.

June 12, 1930, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 3, Evansville, Wisconsin

DARYL PATTERSON VISITS HOME TOWN

Daryl Patterson, former Evansville boy who has been stationed at the Philippine islands as captain of the United States Coast survey ship, "Marinduque," for the past two years, arrived here Saturday for a short visit with friends and relatives enroute to Washington, D. C. He is making the trip overland by automobile.

Before going to the Philippines, Mr. Patterson spent five years in Alaska making coast surveys. He will return to Alaska July 1 to collect material for a book concerning coastwise navigation. Mr. Patterson has been visiting his mother, Mrs. E. M. Patterson, who now resides in Janesville.

May 28, 1931, Evansville Review, p. 8, col. 4, Evansville, Wisconsin

Ruth
nurse,

Foybelle and Alfred Noralie, Stoughton.

W. R. Patterson, Evansville Man, Marks 87th Year

EVANSVILLE—Relatives gathered at a family dinner Tuesday night to honor W. R. Patterson on his 87th birthday anniversary. Mr. Patterson is still in good health and walks four block every day.

Among those present at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Courtier, Mr. and Mrs. George Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Morrison and daughter, Peggy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maas, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Courtier and family, Mrs. Willis Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Wallace.

for the starch, d then paste.
water

WILLIAM PATTERSON DIES HERE SUNDAY

Lifelong Resident of Locality
Succumbs After Critical
Illness of 2 Weeks

William R. Patterson, 87, a lifelong resident of Evansville, died at 11 p.m. Sunday in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clyde Courtier, South First street, following a two weeks' illness. He had been in failing health for the past several months.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Courtier home with the Rev. Arthur Edwards, pastor of the local Methodist church, officiating. Burial was made in Maple Hill cemetery with four grandsons, Kenneth Courtier, Glenn Morrison, Arnold Rasmussen, and Charles Maas, and Irving Wallace and Edward Wealti as pallbearers.

Mr. Patterson, son of the late Franklin and Maria McCreedy Patterson, was born on his father's farm, seven miles west of the city, Nov. 1, 1851 and grew to young manhood in that locality attending the Kelly rural school. He was married to Miss Rosina Lay, Evansville, May 21, 1874 and they celebrated their golden wedding in 1924.

Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson settled on a farm in Green County where they remained a short time later moving to another farm in Rock county west of Evansville. Four years later they purchased their own farm in the Jug Prairie district where they lived for 16 years.

(Continued on last page)

WILLIAM PATTERSON DIES HERE SUNDAY

(Continued from page one)

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson retired from farming in 1902 and moved to Evansville where they purchased the home on South First street in which Mr. Patterson died.

Two daughters were born to the couple. Mrs. Patterson died here Feb. 24, 1929 and since that time Mr. Patterson had made his home with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Courtier. He was very active until recently walking four blocks to the business district of the city nearly every day.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Clyde Courtier and Mrs. George Morrison, both of Evansville; five grandchildren, and five great grandchildren.

December 8, 1938, Evansville Review

OLD TIMES REVIEWED BY FORMER RESIDENT

Mrs. Hattie Patterson Relates Interesting Incidents of Early School Days

The Review is this week in receipt of another interesting letter from Mrs. Hattie S. Patterson, Janesville, former Evansville resident who interestingly describes the early days of Evansville and Union. The historical account of Mrs. Patterson forwarded to Mrs. Fred Hansen reads as follows:

"Since mailing my former letter to you I have resurrected the 'Teacher's Daily Register' which I mentioned and find the first teacher to record therein was Locke Brigham, only son of the late Dr. Brigham who was resident physician in this locality for many years. He married Ada Elwood who after his death became Mrs. Lyman Johnson.

(Continued on last page)

OLD TIMES REVIEWED BY FORMER RESIDENT

(Continued from page one)

Mr. Brigham taught the term of November, December, January, February, and March and the following term May, June, and part of July seems to have been taught by Julia Hosley who later became Mrs. William Gillies, mother of Mrs. Harry Spooner.

"Charles Sweet was the next teacher and Marion Randolph taught the following term of May, June, and July, and again Mr. Sweet taught the winter term of 1876-77. My oldest sister is registered there as 17 years of age and I remember she was married on New Year's eve, 1876 and we left for Texas the following morning, 1877.

"The enrollment has many names familiar unto the present day. I note with much interest on the visitors' register of Nov. 26, 1875 the name of Charles VanHise and the following remarks are recorded—'Mr. VanHise made a few brief remarks to the scholars commending them for their quietness and good recitations. He also made the remark that their improvement depended just as much upon themselves as upon the teacher. He told them that an education is worth striving for as it is the great groundwork of society.'

"On Jan. 25, 1876 J. W. West is flower

raccio
Each firewo lay n ward

ESCA

"Se

in a south from

The
elepha day's

"El

Russe

hours

Staun

farms

house

"A

auton

free

phant

John

emple

"St

party

sheril

volve

she s and been capti

led to

ing registered as a visitor and on May 23, 1876 Josephine Sweet was a visitor.

had "Among the pictures I mentioned ex- I also found six pictures I had taken of of the floats, band, etc., at the time ow-ly of the big homecoming celebration ow-the for the World war boys. Evansville Ve the made a gala day of that occasion and ere-two the floats were very elaborate and god lovely. I remember that the school t is children of the lower grades formed or rys a living flag in the parade. I think ight PA I'll enclose these pictures and if I can withing locate a photographer that can print f sa at from the plates of the old Union pic-an the tures I shall be glad to pass them ans in along. My old camera was a plate iver gift camera instead of the more modern ratch film kodaks. And I have all of these ne ard old negatives.

ou en- "Again I am taxing you with a nd m- lengthy narration. Like the brook—I ossi si- go on forever once I get started. Will n th ev- say adieu now with the best regards e ha ke to any inquiring friends and to the ig is re- Review. Signed—Hattie S. Patterson.

8 August 10, 1939, Evansville Review, p. 1

Lois J. Weary To Wed William N. Patterson

Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. Weary, 23 South First street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lois Jean Weary to William N. Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon S. Patterson, Brooklyn. Both young people are students in the University of Wisconsin.

King
Wil

A
ture derg
p.m. gart vite will fres

May 2, 1946, Evansville Review, p. 8, col. 4,