

Mr. S. Hunt has sold the following lots, since laying them out this spring: to Wm. S. Morgan, lot 37, $250; to Mr. Hildreth, lot 36, $200; to Wm. Patterson one lot $200; to Isaac Morgan, one lot, $200; to G. L. Roscoe, one lot, $200; to S. S. Purrington, one lot, $175.

July 10, 1883, Enterprise, p. 1, col. 6, Evansville, Wisconsin

Miss Nellie Purinton returned Wednesday from her visit in Nebraska.

October 13, 1896, "from the Enterprise", p. 1, col 5, Tribune, Evansville, Wisconsin

Mr. S. S. Purinton has returned from Dakota very much pleased with some parts of that country. He visited his daughter, Mrs. Mildred Hendricks in St. Paul, Minnesota, during his absence.

August 20, 1901, The Tribune, p. 3, col. 5, Evansville, Wisconsin

S. S. Purinton is having a visit from his aunt, Mrs. Purinton of De Smet, S. D., and her two sons, who reside at De Smet and at Iroquois, S. D.

December 17, 1904, The Badger, p. 1, col. 4, Evansville, Wisconsin

Will Smith, Charles Clifford and S. S. Purinton are serving as jurors on the Florence Dugan Trial.

October 15, 1907, Tribune, p. 3, col. 5, Evansville, Wisconsin

J. F. Emery's sale went off nicely Monday, the offerings meeting ready sale at good prices. The farm was bid in by Seymour Purington, the price paid having been $4,400 for the place of 32 acres.

January 20, 1909, The Enterprise and The Tribune, p. 1, col. 3, Evansville, Wisconsin

Seymour Purrinton is having a lot of grading and filing done on the lawn of his new homestead on East Main Street, and when he has finished and the ground is well seeded, it will be a very handsome and picturesque place—one that anyone might be proud to own.

April 21, 1909, The Enterprise and The Tribune, p. 1, col. 4, Evansville, Wisconsin

11 —On Monday papers were made Ti
d out transferring Wm. Kleinsmith's th
28 farm a couple of miles east of town tic
2- to Seymour Purrington, taking in W
2- exchange therefor the 34 acre place ho
2- in the city known as the Emery th
18 place, on east Main street, and a en
le house and lot now occupied by se
18 Fred Rodd. Mr. Purrington and ad
family expect to move onto the th
2- farm the first of March. in
2- November 3, 1909, The Enterprise and The Tribune, p. 1, col. 6, Evansville, Wisconsin

Seymour J. Purinton has bought a lot on Garfield avenue between the residences of J. W. Calkins and Lyman Johnson, and will build thereon in the spring.

October 19, 1911, Evansville Review, p. 4, col. 3, Evansville, Wisconsin

Mr. Seymour Purinton has started work for his new house on Garfield avenue.

April 18, 1912, Evansville Review, p. 5, col. 3

December 25, 1913, Evansville Review, p. 1, Evansville,

Wisconsin

Ben Mapes has bought the Sylvester Purington farm east of town and has moved there with his family
March 5, 1914, Evansville Review, "Moving day comes But Once A Year", Evansville, Wisconsin

Mrs. Charles Spencer has been in Chicago for several days past helping to care for Mrs. Robert Halliwell formerly Miss Marian Purinton who has been ill with pneumonia.
October 21, 1918, Janesville Daily Gazette, "Evansville News", p. 2, Janesville, Wisconsin

Seymour Purinton has purchased Mrs. Helen R. P. Richardson's home on South Second Street.
January 22, 1920, Evansville Review, Evansville, Wisconsin

Mrs. Anna Purinton has sold her farm, two and a half miles northwest of Evansville, to Mr. and Mrs. Austin Hunt, Twin Grove, near Brodhead. They will take possession next March.
September 16, 1926, Evansville Review, p. 5, col. 3, Evansville, Wisconsin

OBITUARY

Sylvester S. Purinton

Sylvester S. Purinton, 72, Albany died Wednesday in the Wisconsin General Hospital Madison, after several weeks illness.

Mr. Purinton was born Jan 15, 1856 in Albany, where he grew to young manhood. July 3, 1876 he married Jane Reese, of Albany, and they lived on a farm near there. Mrs. Purinton died October 19, 1912.

Fourteen years ago he married Mrs Medora Ross, Awatonna, Minnesota.

The deceased is survived by his widow; three daughters, Mrs. Claude Hendrick, Milwaukee, Mrs. Robert Halliwell, Wilmette, Illinois; Mrs. Max Fisher, Madison, and four Grand-children.

Burial will be in Maple Hill Cemetery.

—February 9, 1928, Evansville Review, p. 4, col. 5, Evansville,

Wisconsin

~~June 2-1943~~
Mrs. Seymour Purington, 76, died at 4 p.m. Monday in St. Mary's hospital, Madison, following an emergency appendectomy last Friday. She had not been well for several weeks.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Allen funeral home with the Rev. Grant V. Clark, pastor of the Congregational church officiating. The chapel music was played by Mrs. C. W. Hazlett. Burial was in Maple Hill cemetery with Mont Rogers, Irving Wallace, S. E. McCreedy, William Bliven, Ernest Bidwell and R. M. Carson, acting as pall bearers.

Mrs. Purington formerly Miss Ann Tryphena Jones, daughter of the late Edward and Jane Jones, was born April 4, 1867 in Albany township where she grew to young womanhood and received her education.

She was married to Mr. Purington, October 17, 1886 and following their marriage they resided on a farm west of Albany. They later lived on a farm near this city and in Evansville prior to Mr. Purington's death on May 12, 1926. Mrs. Purington was also preceded in death by an infant son, Marcus Jerome, who was born October 23, 1904 and died the same day.

The deceased is survived by a brother, David L. Jones, Albany and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Oliver Jones also of Albany.

June 2, 1943, Sexton's records, Maple Hill Cemetery,