

IUNGHUHN-REILLY.

Miss Edna L. Reilly was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Charles W. Iunghuhn, on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 6, 1905, at two o'clock, at the residence of the bride; Rev. James Churm officiated.

Exactly at the time appointed Cora Morgan began the wedding march, and the clergyman with the participants descended the stairway, proceeding to the parlor which was beautifully decorated for the occasion; where under a bower of flowers the ceremony took place. The bride was attired in white silk, and was supported by her sister Grace.

The groom was sustained by his brother William who acted as best man. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were present, several coming from Beloit. A fine repast was served. Presents were numerous and valuable. The couple will make their home in Beloit, and the best wishes of all go with them.

September 9, 1905, Badger

Chas. Iunghuhn and wife of Beloit, spent Sunday at the home of John Reilly.

October 7, 1905, Badger

Mrs. Kate Reilly was called to Beloit, Thursday, by the illness of her daughter, Grace, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Edna Iunghun.

November 25, 1905, The Badger, Evansville, Wisconsin

Mrs. Edna Reilly-Iunghuhn of Beloit, is spending the holiday week with her parents John Reilly and wife.

January 2, 1906, Tribune

John E. Reilly has purchased a nice team of large horses of I. U. Fisher for his draying business.

February 2, 1906, Enterprise, Evansville, WI.

Mrs. Jane Reilly takes her departure Saturday morning for a visit with her daughter Mrs. Ada Douglas in New Berlin, Ill.

February 2, 1906, Enterprise

John E. Reilly spent Sunday in Beloit, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Edna Iunghuhn.

February 10, 1906, Badger, Evansville, WI.

Mr. and Mrs. Iunghuhn returned to their home in Beloit last week after a visit with their parents Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Reilly and other relatives and friends here.

May 8, 1906, The Tribune, Evansville, Wisconsin

C. W. Iunghuhn and wife of Beloit were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Reilly the Fourth. Madeline Antes, Grace Reilly and Lillian Hoffman returned home with them Thursday.

July 10, 1906, Tribune.

Joe Hoffman, who has been a guest of J. E. Reilly and other relatives for some time past, returned to his home in Ohio, the first of the week.

October 13, 1906, Evansville Review

Mrs. John Reilly accompanied her daughters, Mrs. Edna Iunghuhn and Miss Grace, to Beloit Monday. The former daughter returning to her home and the latter enters the Beloit business college where she takes a complete course.

January 10, 1907, Evansville Review, Evansville, Wisconsin

Mrs. John Reilly is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

April 5, 1907, Enterprise, Evansville, WI

Grace Reilly of Beloit College is home for a few days assisting in the care of her mother.

April 12, 1907, Enterprise, Evansville, WI

Mrs. J. E. Reilly is with her daughters, Grace, and Mrs. Edna Iunghuhn in Beloit.

May 10, 1907, Enterprise, p. 3, col. Evansville, Wisconsin

Earl Johnson of Chicago, Ill., spent a few days with his uncles Emmett and J. E. Reilly, returning to the city Tuesday.

May 10, 1907, Enterprise, p. 3, col. 2, Evansville, Wisconsin

John Reilly has had a new foundation built under his barn and a new roof put on. The lot is being filled in and leveled up, improving its appearance.

May 20, 1908, Enterprise & Tribune, Evansville, WI

For Sale: My entire draying business will be sold to anyone wishing to purchase, at just what it inventories. There is plenty of business. For full particulars inquire of J. E. Reilly.

January 13, 1909, Enterprise, p. 1, col. 7, Evansville, Wisconsin

John Reilly has sold his draying business to Gus Jewel and will remove, with his family to Beloit, where he has been appointed agent for the Standard Oil company. He has been here for many years, and both he and his family will be greatly missed by their many friends here.

March 24, 1909, Enterprise & Tribune, Evansville, Wisconsin

Guy Patterson has quit his job in the store and purchased the oil business from John Reilly, which he will look after in the future. Mr. Patterson will be found a careful and reliable man in this work, and we predict he will give satisfaction to both patrons and the company.

March 31, 1909, The Enterprise and The Tribune, p. 1, col. 3, Evansville, Wisconsin

John Reilly came up from Beloit one day last week for a brief stay in the old home town.

May 12, 1909, Enterprise & Tribune, Evansville, WI

September 1, 1909, The Enterprise, Evansville, Wisconsin

Cement Walk Industry.

That the cement walk industry in Evansville has been very large this season, there is no dispute, and how much is a question that even the contractors themselves are unable to definitely state. However, it would not be far out of the way to say that something over two miles of street walks have been laid, not counting sidewalks to houses.

According to the figures given by the several contractors, we have a large area of cement laid, but while one gives estimates in square feet which includes narrow walks as well as wide, it is difficult to determine to a certainty the length in rods of walks laid. However, it will be interesting to know how much cement walk, curbing, etc., has been placed in the city, and it is found that Contractor Brown has made 200 rods of street walk, 50 rods of curbing and same in walks.

Contractor Cook will place 168 rods of street walk, with 30 rods of sidewalk and 60 rods of curbing.

Contractor Reilly estimates his work as 15,215 square feet of walk, with 1,126 square feet of curbing.

Contractor B. Morgan gives in 10,420 square feet of walk and 939 square feet of curbing.

In these figures there is not included the crossings nor gutter work authorized by the city, but which plays an important factor in cement work done.

Based on the estimate as given by the heaviest contractor, that his work will amount to some $2,600

September 30, 1909, Evansville Review

Sept 30, 1909 ER

Based on the estimate as given by the heaviest contractor, that his work will amount to some $2,600 for the season, it will be seen that this business is one of importance and expense.

Cont. of September 30, 1909, Evansville

Review article

—E. T. Reilly will start Thursday for Phoenix, Ariz., where he may remain all winter if conditions and the climate suit him. Mr. Reilly will take his tools along, and as he is an expert cement artist, will probably take some contracts for work in his line. We wish him success and a pleasant winter.

October 13, 1909, Enterprise, Evansville, Wisconsin

Family Gathering Sunday.

There was a very happy family gathering last Sunday at the pleasant farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Holden, in the town of Magonia not far from the city. There were about thirty present, among them Mrs. Jane Reilly, C. T. Bartlett and family, Roy Holden and family, E. T. Reilly and family, Mrs. Ada Douglass and children, of New Berlin, Ill., Willard Holden, of Baraboo and Miss Bessie Clement, of Janesville. The day was very enjoyably spent and will be remembered with pleasure by those present for a long time to come.

October 13, 1909, Enterprise, Evansville, Wisconsin

Miss Grace Reilly of Beloit, and Miss Lillian Hoffman, of Toledo, Ohio, made a flying trip up from Beloit, Sunday, for a short visit with relatives.

October 13, 1909, Enterprise, Evansville, Wisconsin

For Sale: My entire draying business will be sold to anyone wishing to purchase, at just what it inventories. There is plenty of business. For full particulars inquire of J. E. Reilly.

January 6, 1909, Enterprise, p. 1, col. 6, Evansville, Wisconsin

Emmett Reilly is working at the cement business in South Dakota this season.

April 27, 1910, The Enterprise and Tribune, p. 1, col. 3, Evansville, Wisconsin

William Douglas left for his new home in La Crosse Friday and will be joined by his family shortly. He has leased his home to Mrs. Emmett Reilly.

April 27, 1911, Evansville Review

Wm Colbert is to occupy the Reilly house on the corner of Church Street and Maple Avenue.

February 22, 1912, p. 5, col. 1, Evansville Review

Mr. And Mrs. John Reilly and daughter Grace of Beloit, were over Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. R. M. Antes.

March 30, 1911, Evansville Review

Mrs. John Reilly of Beloit is a guest this week at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. M. Antes,

April 18, 1912, Evansville Review, p. 5, col. 3

Mr. and Mrs. M. Holden entertained the following people at a family reunion on Sunday: Mrs. W. F. Holden and two children of Baraboo, Mr. and Mrs. John Reilly of Beloit, Mrs. Charles Bartlett and Mrs. Jane Reilly of Blanchardville, Emmett Reilly of Milwaukee and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Speer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Holden and children of Evansville.

February 28, 1915, Evansville Review, p. 5, col. 1, Evansville, Wisconsin

Mrs. J. E. Reilly of Beloit, spent Sunday and Monday at the home of Robert M. Antes.

February 10, 1916, p. 5, Evansville Review, Evansville, Wisconsin

Mrs. J. E. Reilly, of Beloit, and Daniel Cornelius, of Philippi, W. Va., spent the weekend at the home of R. M. Antes. On Monday Mr. Cornelius accompanied Mrs. Reilly home for a visit, after which he will return here for an extended visit. November 18, 1917, Evansville Review, p. 5, col. 2, Evansville, Wisconsin

Mr Ralph Jenkins and mother, Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. John Reilly and daughter, Grace, and Mr. Daniel Cornelius, all of Beloit, autoed over from that city Wednesday and visited at the home of R. M. Antes.

August 29, 1918, Evansville Review

Posted May 10-2001

OBITUARY

Mrs. Jane Reilly, an old time resident of Rock county and of Evansville died at her home of her daughter, Mrs. C. F. Bartlett, at Beloit, Tuesday, April 19, in the ninety-third year of her age, having been ill for the last eight months.

The deceased was born in the town of Navon, County Meade, Ireland and came to this country at the age of twelve years, making her home with her parents in the state of New York, until her marriage to Thomas Reilly, when she was twenty years of age. At that time she and her husband came to Rock county settling in the Rock Prairie community, and afterwards moving to Evansville, where she lived for many years, living in this county and city fifty-five years.

To this union was born eleven children, five of which have preceded her to the Great Beyond, while six remain to mourn her loss, she having been left a widow by the death of her husband, July 7, 1878.

Those of the children who yet remain are: Mrs. Charles Bartlett, Beloit; Mrs. M. N. Holden, Evansville; J. E. Reilly, Beloit; E. T. Reilly, Milwaukee; Mrs. Kate Spear, Adams, Wis.; and Mrs. J. B. Douglas, Mansfield, Ill.

The funeral occurs this afternoon at St. John's Church, Rev. Wilmer, of Janesville officiating. The remains will be laid beside her husband in Maple Hill cemetery.

The deceased was one, whom to know was to love and her patient forbearing spirit is well remembered by the hosts of friends who knew her during her long residence in this county and city. The deceased had the true Irish heart which easily overlooked the shortcomings of others and saw only the good in every character and friend, and over her passing many tears have been shed for one of the best of Nature's noble women, mother and friend.

Hansen's Suits to order at $35.00 are creating quite a sensation. Why take chances elsewhere? Hansen stands back of all his work and you know it.

FOR SALE—Entire house furnishings at S. E. Miller's.

LOST—Package of freshly ironed starched clothes, between the Creamery and the coal office on last Monday morning. Finder please leave at this office.

Anyone having clothes left in my shop over 30 days please call for them or they will be sold for charges. Fred W. Hansen—the Tailor.

Michael N. Holden

Michael N. Holden passed away f early Monday evening, March 6, 1921, t following an illness of a year's dura- (t tion. He was born Dec. 22, 1844 in t Canada, close to the New York state t line, and was the oldest of seven chil- i dren. e

When but a baby, his parents moved to Fort Covington, N. Y., and here he grew to young manhood.

In 1864 he answered the call of his country, enlisted and fought with General Phil Sheridan from Petersburg to Appomatox. After being discharged from army service, he returned to Fort Covington and remained there until 1879 when he came to Wisconsin, and has been living in or near Evansville since that time.

On Feb. 6, 1881, he was married to Mary Clarissa Reilly and to the union nine children were born. He leaves to mourn his gonig, his wife and seven children, five sons, Ray of Center, John of La Valle, George and Willard of Chicago, Harold of this city, and two daughters, Mrs. Edgar Horne and Mrs. Russell Weary, both of Evansville. He is also survived by two brothers, David and James Holden of Fort Covington, N. Y.

Always a considerate husband and father, and at the end, a most patient sufferer, he will be greatly missed by the immediate family. A large circle of friends also regret his death, for a kindly spirit and a willingness to tender help at all times to neighbors and friends was always manifest in him.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at St. Paul's church. The G. A. R. men attended the funeral in a body.

March 9, 1922, Evansville Review

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reilly and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Iunghuhn motored here from Beloit Sunday, and spent several hours at the R. M. Antes residence.

May 11, 1922, Evansville Review

DANIEL CORNELIUS IS CALLED BY DEATH

Daniel Cornelius, father of Mrs. R. M. Antes of this city, died last night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. E. Reilly, at Beloit, after a long illness.

Daniel Cornelius was born at Perrysburg, Ohio, September 14, 1843. During the 70's he was a resident of Wisconsin, and about 1880 moved to Berkeley Springs, West Virginia, where he was engaged in the hotel and fruit growing business. He was owner of the historic Fairfax Inn, built on the land owned by Lord Fairfax, which George Washington surveyed in his youth, and in which was preserved a room where George Washington had slept many times.

Mr. Cornelius returned to Wisconsin about five years ago to make his home with his two daughters. About eight weeks ago he suffered a paralytic stroke from which he never recovered.

Besides his daughters and grandchildren, he leaves one brother and two sisters in Ohio to mourn his loss.

January 18, 1923, Evansville Review

John E. Reilly 1859-1923

John E. Reilly, who died at his home at Beloit, Friday, December 7, was born in Madison, Wisconsin, March 27, 1859, coming to Evansville when a small child with his parents, where he received his education and made his home until fifteen years ago when the needs of his business made it necessary for him to remove to Beloit, where he has made his home since.

For ten years, Mr. Reilly was agent for the Standard Oil Company in this city, the company then moving him to Beloit, where he put in fifteen more years in its employ, making him one of the oldest employees in point of service, that company has ever had.

The deceased was a member of the Court of Honor, the E. F. U. and the Elks, the funeral services at Beloit being largely attended. Interment was made in the Evansville Cemetery, where a large number of his old friends and associates gathered to show their respect for a man whom they had known for a long period when he was in business in this city.

There is left to mourn his loss, his wife and two daughters, Miss Grace Reilly, and Mrs. Charles Iunghuhn, both of Beloit; four sisters, Mrs. Mike Holden, Evansville, Mrs. Charles Bartlett, Beloit, Mrs. John Douglas, Mansfield, Ill., Mrs. Kate Speer, Jefferson, Wisconsin and one brother, Emmett Reilly, of Milwaukee.

To the hosts of old friends in this city who knew him, during his many years of business in Evansville, the announcement of the death of John Reilly, still in the prime of life, comes as sad news. His great strength of character, intelligence of more than the average, and sterling traits of character expressed in his business and social dealings with his fellow men had made for him many friends who hold for his feelings of kindness and regard, far in excess of the ordinary feelings of friendship.

December 13, 1923, Evansville Review, Evansville, Wisconsin

JOHN B. DOUGLAS

John B. Douglas who passed away at four o'clock last Saturday morning was a native of Wisconsin where he was born on a farm near Stoughton May 28, 1870. The most important facts of his early life centered in the city of Evansville Wis. Here he passed his boyhood and received his education, first in the the public school and later in the Evansville Seminary. In this city on October 13, 1889 he married Miss Ada Reilly which was the beginning of the span of thirty-five years in which he enjoyed a most happy home life. Six children came to bless their home, four sons and two daughters. The daughters are Arlene (now Mrs. Russel B. Hayes, of Springfield, Ill.) and Doris (now Mrs. Eldon L. Hatfield of Madison, Wisconsin.) The sons born are Lee who passed away when eighteen months of age; Wayne Edward of New York City; Richard R. whose home is in Clinton, Ill.; and Chas. Lee who is a student in the Mansfield high school.

He is also survived by three sisters and one brother, Mrs. George Green of Stoughton, Wis., Mrs. Wm. Hulse of California, Mrs. Wm. Hardy of Duluth Minn., and Edward H. Douglas also of Duluth.

For the last twenty-five years Mr. Douglas had been in the employ of the Alexander Lumber company; eleven years in New Berlin, Ill., and fourteen in Mansfield, Ill. As a business man he was accurate, energetic and honest. In both towns he made many friends and became known as a good citizen and a man of high honor.

Mr. Douglas made good use of his educational advantages and kept abreast of the times by his life-long habit of wide reading. He served as a member of the Mansfield school board for four years. He was well qualified for this position and in it served the community faithfully.

While a resident in New Berlin, Ill., he became a member of the Baptist church. He was also a member of Mansfield lodge No. 773 A. F. and A. M. His brothers in this order are present today in honor of his memory.

Probably the home was the one interest which absorbed his greatest thought and attention. No sacrifice was too great for him to make for he lavished his tender affection upon family's comfort and happiness. While

L. Seguin George an three siste
Chicago, I ton, and Marinette, are left t
Funeral home of l
Wednesda
Rev. F. P terment
Cemetery

CAROLIN

Carolin
in Evans'
1875. Sh
S. nad M graduate Rockford
B. H. Bi
vember, have ma
Illinois.

For a in ill hes to her c Wis., fo home Su
nesday 1
Funer
Rockfor
terment
tery Sat

Her husband
Hartley
Evansvi

M

The clipped is publ
At 5
wedding
Neillsv
Mackey
South took pl groom'

John B. Douglas obit continued.

The following attended the funeral from out of town:

Mrs. J. B. Douglas and son Chas. Mansfield, Ill.; Richard Douglas, Clinton, Ill.; Mrs. Russell Hayes, Springfield, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Douglas, New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Hatfield, Mr. and Mrs. E. Nye, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nye of Madison; Mr. Emmett Reilly, Milwaukee; Mr. R. Douglas and sister May, Chicago; Mr. Frank Green and mother, Stoughton; Mrs. Florrie Hardy and daughter Lois Hoxie, and Mr. Edw. Douglas, Duluth, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bartlett, Mrs. Wayne Dudley and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Yunghun, Mrs. J. E. Reilly and daughter Grace and Mr. C. Fessenden, of Beloit.

February 21, 1924, Evansville Review

Mr. And Mrs. Charles Iunghuhn, Miss Grace Reilly, Mrs. Catherine Reilly, Mrs. P. S. Larson, and Dudley Larson, Beloit, and Mr. And Mrs. R. W. Hayes and Mrs. L. W. Bailey, Terra Haute, Ind., were among those from out of town who attended the grand opening of Evansville's new Velvet Greens miniature golf course Saturday.

August 14, 1930, Evansville Review, Evansville, WI.

(note: the miniature golf course was owned by William Antes)

MRS. CHAS BARTLETT DIES HERE SATURDAY

Funeral Rites Held Monday in Catholic Church; Buried in Maple Hill Cemetery

Mrs. Charles Bartlett, 81, a pioneer resident of Evansville, died here at 5:45 a.m. Saturday in the home of her sister, Mrs. Mary N. Holden, 39 West Church street, following a serious illness of about four weeks. She had been failing in health for the past two months.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a. m. Tuesday in St. Paul's Catholic church, the Rev. Father McCollow officiating. Burial was made in Maple Hill cemetery with Ray Holden, Malcolm Towns, Edgar Horne, Charles Iunghuhn, Russell Weary, and Wayne Dudley, all nephews, as pallbearers.

Mrs. Bartlett, formerly Miss Pamela Reilly, was born in Little Falls, Herkimer county, N. Y., Feb. 23, 1849 moving to Wisconsin with her parents, the late Thomas and Jane Reilly, in 1855. After living in Janesville for a short time they moved to Evansville where Mrs. Bartlett was graduated from the Evansville seminary.

Following their marriage here in 1882, Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett operated the Central and Commercial hotels for a short time and were later engaged in the restaurant business. On leaving Evansville they located in Milwaukee after which they operated a hotel in Blanchardville. They located in Beloit 16 years ago returning to Evansville one and one-half years ago to make their home with Mrs. Mary Holden.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett adopted their niece, Anna Johnson, as a daughter many years ago and she made her home with them until her marriage. Mrs. Bartlett, a loving wife and mother, and a patriotic citizen, was a member of the Catholic church. Besides a host of friends, she is survived by her husband; one daughter, Mrs. Wayne Dudley, Beloit; two grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. M. N. Holden, Evansville, Mrs. Walter Speer, Brodhead, and Mrs. Ada Hollehan, Mansfield, Ill.; and one brother, Emmett Reilly, Milwaukee. To them is extended the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community.

Among those from out-of-town who attended the funeral services here were Mr. and Mrs. Willard Holden,

(Continued on last page)

MRS. CHAS. BARTLETT DIES HERE SATURDAY

(Continued from page 1)

Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Holden, Pecatonica, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Speer, Janesville; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Speer, Fort Atkinson; Mrs. Catherine Reilly, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Iunghuhn, Mrs. Herman Schrandt, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dudley, and Mrs. McGovern, Beloit; Mrs. Lydia Reilly and Miss Ruth Jones and friend, Milwaukee; Mrs. Walter Speer and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller, Brodhead; Mrs. Ada Hollehan, Mansfield, Ill.; and Mr. and Mrs. Elden Hatfield, Madison.

Mrs. E. T. Reilly, Milwaukee, a former resident of this city, will come the last of the week to care for Mrs. Walter Apfel, who is expected to return from St. Mary's hospital, Madison, Saturday, or Sunday.

June 23, 1932, Evansville Review, p. 5, col. 2, Evansville, Wisconsin

FORMER LOCAL MAN DIES IN MILWAUKEE

Emmett Reilly Answers Final Call Friday; Funeral Rites Held Here Monday

Emmett Reilly, 73, a former Evansville resident and brother of Mrs. Mary Holden, 34 North Second Street, died at 2 a.m. Friday in a Milwaukee hospital following a lingering illness. He had never fully recovered from injuries sustained in a street car accident in Milwaukee eight years ago and had been failing in health since that time.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Monday in the Roderick funeral home here with the Rev. Grant V. Clark pastor of the local Congregational church officiating. The song service was presented by Mrs. W. A. Dake who sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" accompanied at the piano by Mrs. John Thurman.

Burial was made in Maple Hill cemetery with Martin L. Paulson, S. E. Barnard, Walter Tullar, Charles Merrick, Berg Morgan and Ben Ellis as pall bearers.

Mr. Reilly was born in 1863 in Evansville and was married here to Miss Lida Pearlman of this city. He was employed here for many years as a cement worker moving with Mrs. Reilly about 20 years ago to Milwaukee. While in Milwaukee Mr. and Mrs. Reilly operated a large rooming house which business they conducted until Mr. Reilly was injured.

Besides his wife, Mr. Reilly is survived by one son, Burr T. Reilly, Milwaukee, a daughter, Mrs. Kittie Jones, Milwaukee; two grandchildren; and three sisters, Mrs. Mary Holden, this city; Mrs. Walter Speer, Warren, Wis.; and Mrs. Ada Douglas, Madison.

Among those who were here Monday to attend the services were Mrs. Ada Douglas, and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Hatfield, Madison; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Speer, Warren, Wis; Miss Grace Reilly, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dudley, Beloit; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Speer and two sons and Mrs. Herman Schrandt, Janesville; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Holden, Pecatonica; and Mr. and Mrs. Burr Reilly and Mrs. Kittie Jones and two daughters, Milwaukee.

January 3, 1935, Evansville Review, pp 1 & 8, Evansville, Wisconsin

E ENTS
NG CITY

MARY C. HOLDEN, 82 PASSES AWAY AFTER HEART ATTACK HERE

the latest a Illinois n an atsients (or they are are given pected to f wood in pitality.
xperiment that it has nsients as s. isin State make no ystem but ient Serv-
n the stand in re-ge migran without

Mrs. Mary C. Holden, 82, passed away at her home here Wednesday morning at 10:45 o'clock, from heart trouble and complications. Her health had been poor since April, but until last Friday, her condition seemed to be improving. At that time a sudden turn for the worse sent her to bed.

She was born Mary Clarissa Reilly, daughter of the late Thomas and Jane Reilly, January 6, 1855, in Janesville. While she was still a child, the family moved to Jug Prairie, and after the Civil War, in which her father fought, the family moved to Evansville, where she became the bride of Michael N. Holden, Fort Covington, N. Y., who was also a Civil War veteran. The couple lived on farms east of here until 20 years ago, when they moved into the city. Mr. Holden, a stock buyer, passed away here March 6, 1922.

The couple had nine children, one son passing away in infancy, and Martin, the eldest, dying 38 years ago. Survivors include five sons, Raymond, Evansville; John, LaValle; George, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Willard, Chicago; and Harold, Pecatonica, Ill.; two daughters, Mrs. Edgar Horne and Mrs. Russell Weary, Evansville; two sisters, Mrs. Ada Douglas, Madison, and Mrs. Walter Speer, Warrens, and sixteen grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

She was an active member of the Congregational church, Eastern Star, and Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. from the home and 2:30 p.m. from the Congregational church, with burial in Maple Hill cemetery.

MRS FRANK TIDDED

tie, ma
I
and an aw Tu
she she ern
S He chil bro vill

T
wit

A

FO
s s b o

Evansville July 29, 1937,

FORMER LOCAL MAN DIES IN ROCKFORD

Charles Bartlett Succumbs in Hospital Friday Following Several Years' Illness

Charles F. Bartlett, 83, former Evansville restaurant operator and an employee in the F. A. Baker hardware store here for many years, died Friday morning in a Rockford hospital following a critical illness of several months during which time he was confined to his bed. He had been failing in health since a stroke suffered 13 years ago.

Funeral services were conducted here at 3 p.m. Saturday in the Roderick funeral home at 39 North First street with the Rev. Grant V. Clark, pastor of the local Congregational church, officiating. The song service was presented by Mrs. William Boode who sang, "Face to Face" accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Ray Carpenter.

Burial was made in Maple Hill cemetery with Charles Seguine, Mont Rogers, M. L. Paulson, Fay Patton, Warren Brown, and Edmond Hall as pallbearers.

Among those from out-of-town who were here to attend the services were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Iunghuhn, Miss Reilly, and Herman Schrandt, Beloit; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dudley and Fay Patton, Rockford, Ill.; Walter and Cecil Speer, Janesville; and Mrs. Ada Douglas, and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Hatfield, Madison.

Mr. Bartlett, son of Joseph and Pauline Bartlett, pioneer Rock county settlers, was born in Janesville, Aug. 25, 1855 and was married 57 years ago to Miss Pamela Reilly, Evansville. Following his marriage he was employed for several years here at the F. A. Baker hardware store and later operated the Commercial hotel and restaurants in the buildings now occupied by the Leota theatre and Frank's cafe.

Upon leaving Evansville, Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett resided for a short time in Blanchardville later returning to this city and 20 years ago locating in Beloit. Mrs. Bartlett died in January, 1931. Mr. Bartlett is survived by several nieces and nephews and one niece, Mrs. Wayne Dudley, Rockford, who Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett reared from childhood.

CLARK GABLE, MYRNA LOY COMING SUNDAY

Two Popular Stars Will be Seen At Leota Theatre Here in "Too Hot to Handle"

Thrills in the strenuous life of a newsreel cameraman, and romance between Clark Gable as the adventurer of the lens and Myrna Loy as a daring aviatrix come to the Leota theatre here next Sunday in the photoplay, "Too

November 24, 1938, Evansville Review

Mrs. Lida Reilly, Mrs. Kittie Jones and Mr. Pillsbury, Milwaukee, called on Mr. and Mrs. Ray Holden Sunday.

December 1, 1938, Evansville Review